

cold weather for the season I shall welcome the warm weather when it comes

With the kindest remembrance to your household

Your friend
Lydia Mott

there a time when uncom-
-promising antislavery was more needed than now —

Where we shall end after all the commotion subsides time alone can determine We have one consolation that our work is the same whatever the politician or so named States man may do — We only can proclaim justice and truth —

I learned through Sally to my surprise that your travelling expenses to the Albany Convention two years ago this winter have never been paid — please let me know the amount and I will remit the same to you — I regret the oversight occurred
We are having very cold being found in the morning in the same position as <sup>when</sup> left the evening previous. It was a great disappointment to Sally as she had antici-pated a visit with him a Telegram met her at Worcester and she arrived in season to attend the funeral services on Wednesday I was glad to learn by them that your health is much better and you will be able to be present at the May meetings in N. Y. - I suppose there is little hope that Mr Jack-son will be there and Mr Phillips will depend on Mrs P. health it seems as though our numbers are fewer from year to year - When never were

Anti-Slavery office
Albany April 1st 1861

Dear Friend

Jamison

40

We have had the company of our friends Miss Holly and Miss Putnam the past week.
They were called here soon after they expected visit Albany in consequence of the sudden death of Miss Holly's Uncle who was usually well on Sunday at tea he was taken with a vertigo which caused him to fall from his chair after being helped on his feet he fell in a heap from which we judge he never awoke